Instructed to Surrender at Discretion.

Blanco So Notifies the Home Government--The End May Come Soon.

MORE VIGOR DECIDED ON BY MILES.

Madrid, July 14.--(Special).--Capt. Gen. Blanco has notified the War Department that he has instructed Gen. Toral, in command at Santiago, to resist attack as long as possible, but to surrender at his own discretion.

Wheeler Climbed a Tree.

Shafter Filled With Envy.

Santiago, July 14.--(Special).--Gen. Wheeler is particularly addicted to "scouting." Tuesday this kindly, mild-looking little veteran, who swung his hat and jumped like a boy when the first Hotchkiss shell struck the Spanish breastworks, went out on a reconnaissance that took him within four miles of Santiago. There happened to be a handy palm tree at this point and up the trunk the general swarmed, perching in the branches and calmly surveying the outworks of the enemy through the field glasses.

Gen. Shafter reached Gen. Wheeler's quarters last evening and dropped breathless into a hammock, which creaked so alarmingly under

MAJ. GEN. JOSEPH WHEELER.

This gallant ex-confederate cavalry leader is now in charge of the cavalry division of the United States army. He was for a long time what some called an "un-reconstructed southerner," but now is one of the most loyal Americans. Prior to his appointment as major general by President McKinley he was a representative in congress from the Eighth Alabama district. The picture shows the general in his new union blue uniform.

his weight that he quickly abandoned it for the ground. In the course of the conversation that followed the venerable ex-confederate officer alluded to the tree-climbing incident.

"You climb a tree!" exclaimed Gen. Shafter.

"Certainly; why not?" replied Gen. Wheeler.

"How old are you, general?" inquired the portly commander of his invading forces.

"Sixty-one, but I don't feel it," said Gen. Wheeler.

Gen. Shafter eyed the spare figure before him silently and enviously for a moment and then he said: "Well, I wish I could do that."

Iowa Sent to Dry Dock

For Needed Repairs.

New York, July 14.--(Special).--The Dry Dock Brooklyn navy yard is preparing to receive the battleship Iowa. She will enter dock in two weeks to have her bottom cleaned and to have an unexploded Spanish shell removed from her armor, where it was imbedded in the recent naval battle.

FALL OF SANTIAGO.

The City Formally Surrenders this Afternoon at 3:00.

TORAL AND HIS ARMY RETURN TO SPAIN!

Washington, July 14, 3:05 p. m.--Special.--The city of Santiago formally surrendered at 3 p. m.

Washington, July 14, 2 p. m.--Special.--The following has just been given out: Playa Del Este, July 14.--Just returned from an interview with Gen. Toral. He agrees to surrender on the basis of being returned to Spain. The proposition embraces the Eastern end of Cuba from Aceraderes on the South to Sagua on the North, via Palma with practically the fourth army corps.

Washington, July 14.--(Special).--Gen. Shafter, it is stated, has been authorized to appoint a commission to arrange the details of the surrender, provided it is immediate.

Secretary Alger feels that the surrender is practically accomplished.

Gen. Corbin says he has no doubt that the surrender is complete now (at 1:30 p. m.) unless there has been treachery, which he does not anticipate.

Toral Asks For a Commission.

Washington, July 14.--(Special).--Shortly after 11 o'clock the Secretary of War received a dispatch from Gen. Shafter saying Gen. Toral had asked for the appointment of commissioners to consider terms of surrender. It is believed the dispatch indicates that Santiago is on the point of being delivered over to the Americans.

The Latest from Manila.

The City May Have Fallen July 9.

Chicago, July 14.--(Special).--A Record special from Manila says the insurgents are concentrating their forces around Manila in a supreme effort to capture it. A general attack is expected July 9. The insurgents have a strong desire to possess the capital before the Americans make a land attack.

Honolulu, July 14.--(Special).--The Monadnock and Nero arrived here July 4. They should reach Dewey by July 30.

A CONCEITED ENGLISHMAN SAYS

DEWEY'S GUNNERS ARE ENGLISH.

London, July 14.--(Special).--Robt. Cunningham Graham, formerly member of Parliament, in a letter to the St. James Gazette, says the excellent gunnery of Dewey's ships was due to the fact that most of the chief gunners were Englishmen decoyed from the British ships by the payment of $500 each.

Sagasta Rejects the Terms

Of Peace in Advance.

Madrid, July 14.--(Special).--The Epoca advises the government to occupy the northern provinces immediately, as an organization of Carl lists is certain.

Sagasta declares that Spain cannot accept the peace proposals American newspapers ascribe to President McKinley.

Getting Ready For Watson.

Working On Cadiz Harbor.

London, July 13.--(Special).--A dispatch to Lloyds from Cadiz says all buoys, lights and land marks have been removed from the harbor at Cadiz.

The Irene Called Down.

Dewey Takes No Foolishness.

Manila, July 9, via Hong Kong, July 14.--The insurgents on Wednesday, July 6, reported that the German ship Irene, in Subig Bay, refused to permit them to attack the Spaniards on Grande Island. Rear Admiral Dewey promptly dispatched the Raleigh and Concord to investigate the matter. On entering the Subig Bay the Raleigh opened fire on the forts, whereupon the Irene slipped her cable and steamed out by the other channel.

The result of the fire of the American warship was that the Spaniards, numbering over 500 men, surrendered everything.

On returning to Manila the Irene explained that she had interfered "in the cause of humanity," and offered to hand over to the Americans the refugees she had on board. Admiral Dewey, however, declined to accept them.

Good Advice to Spain--Powers

Recommend Peace Negotiations.

London, July 14.--(Special).--A Berlin correspondent of the Times says:

Several powers have confidentially hinted to the Madrid authorities that peace negotiations ought to be begun immediately. They have also advised Spain to sell one or more of her islands to the United States as security for indemnity, and to convert the Philippines and other colonies into republics under Spanish suzerainty.

Not Certain About It.

May Not Be Yellow Fever.

Washington, July 14.--(Special).--Surgeon General Sternberg said this morning that not a single fatality from the supposed yellow fever had been reported from the army in Cuba. Until death occurs he cannot tell positively whether it is yellow fever or not.

Peace Talk in Madrid.

Madrid, July 14.--(Special).--Almadovar admits that the British ambassador to Spain has made representations in the direction of peace, but only in a semi-official capacity.

A Pacific Cable To

Be Begun in Six Months.

Honolulu, H. I., July 8, via San Francisco, July 14.--(Special).--A contract has been signed to lay a cable to San Diego, Cal., to Honolulu thence to Japan. Work will begin in six months.

Only New Troops for Porto Rico.

Washington, July 14, 3 p. m.--(Special).--It has been decided that none of the troops now in Cuba will be sent to Porto Rico on account of yellow fever.

The Guido Becomes Ours.

Key West, July 14.--(Special).--The prize ships Catalina, Buena Ventura and Guido, leave to-day for New York. The Guido will be transformed into an auxiliary cruiser.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
HENRY D. ALLEN,
OF UNION COUNTY.

A one-cent stamp is a small thing, but there is to be an endless amount of litigation to decide who puts it on an express package. The internal revenue commissioner has formally and officially decided that the law requires the express company to pay the stamp, but the express companies will appeal to the courts. Condensed to apply to the subject in hand the law reads:

"It shall be the duty of every express company to issue to the shipper or consignee, from whom goods are accepted for transportation a bill of lading, and there shall be attached and canceled a stamp of said bills of lading a stamp of the value of one cent."

From this language, it is clear that the commissioner has properly construed the law. It was undoubtedly the intention of Congress to have this tax fall upon the express companies. As a matter of fact the charge for an express package rarely falls upon the sender. If any one besides the company is to pay, it should be the consignee. The person who receives the package almost invariably pays the cost of transportation. Often the consignee has no interest in the package sent and there is no reason why he should pay any part of the expense. But the very fact that the tax must be prepaid precludes the adding of the tax to the transportation charge. Suppose for instance a lost article is found and the finder desires to send it by express to the owner, the charges to be collected on delivery. Under the construction of the express companies, the finder could not send it without prepaying a part of the charge himself. The company in this case is bound to receipt for the article and send C. O. D. and the receipt cannot be given without a stamp, and a disinterested party is under no more obligation to stamp the express company's receipts than he would be to stamp his letters.

It is unfortunate that a body composed largely of lawyers should have made a law of such importance that was not free from ambiguity, but there is scarcely a doubt that the courts will uphold the commissioner's interpretation of this section.

Owensboro has an ordinance that no person shall engage in bill posting in Owensboro for persons whose business is outside of Owensboro without first procuring a license. The American Tobacco Company made it a test case and City Judge Pendleton decided that the ordinance is unconstitutional, in that it violates the federal constitution which provides that each state shall grant the citizens of other states the same rights and privileges enjoyed by its own citizens. The case will be appealed and if the decision be sustained many ordinances and other local laws will be rendered inoperative in all parts of the country.

The following from the Paducah News shows how the recent press meeting affected some of the Purchase editors:

"There is an exhibition at Kuttawa the skin of a snake 6 feet, 7 inches long, which was killed near the Tennessee river bridge, between the rivers, on Sunday last. The snake is what is commonly called a rattlesnake and is said to be every inch as long as reported. The carcass of the snake contained a chicken and a rabbit when it was killed."

"P. S.—Edgar Whittemore lives at Kuttawa."

The Brazilian dynamite gun vessel Nichteroy, purchased by the government for $350,000, has been found unfit for use without an additional expense of $300,000. Naval authorities have decided to spend more money on the vessel, but have recommended that she be used as a collier. It would have been better if the Merrimack had been saved and the Nichteroy used by Hobson to block the harbor of Santiago. By-the-way, who made the trade with Brazil?

CLIPPED AND COMPILED.

A "personal" advertisement in a big New York York says: "My heart is screaming for your dear, sweet angel face." This case ought to be referred to that Gotham society for the suppression of unnecessary noise.

Merely as a friendly act toward the foe we earnestly advise Spain to lay in a full stock of bromo-seltzer now against the inevitable headache that is to come.

It cost Camara $160,000 to enter the Suez Canal. Considering the performance from beginning to end it wasn't worth the price of admission.

It must be humiliating to Spain to reflect that she can't fight hard enough to keep the sea serpent away from the Atlantic coast resorts.

When is Sagasta going to deliver that "single, terrible, crushing blow"? If he doesn't hurry up Watson may have to go on for it.

Cervera must have very peculiar ideas about punctuations. He started out with a Colon, made a big dash and came to a full stop.

"Shall we go to sleep?" asks the Memphis Commercial-Appeal. Do you imagine your subscribers wouldn't find it out?

Blanco insists that the war must not end and says he wants to fight. But he is in Havana instead of Santiago.

Blanco threatens to fire upon any flag of truce for the Americans. But that's all right; he can't hit it anyway.

It is ten to one that Camara wasn't thoughtful enough to buy a return trip ticket to Port Said.

Spain evidently intends that Watson shall have a chance for promotion as well as Dewey.

"After the torpedo boat destroyer what?" asks a London paper. The Gloucester.

As an American citizen Mrs. Dominis is still a queen; every American woman is that.

But what does Paramount Blount get for his unflattering interest in Hawaiian affairs?

The Brooklyn is good as a racer and her commander has proved himself a fine engineer.

Camara's naval motto evidently is "small profits and quick returns."

Now let's see what Watson can do in the line of looking for trouble.

Schley has proved himself a true friend of the Cuban king dealers.

One fortification Morro less at Santiago will make little difference.

That Santiago bottle being empty, why not smash it?

A Frankfort special contains this interesting bit of news:

"Senator Lindsay is in harmony with the masses of the silver party on all the issues brought out by the war, and his friends have been making an effort on this account to have him assigned to campaign duty this fall with the regular Democratic workers. This was communicated to ex-Senator Blackburn, Senator Goebel and other silver leaders, who promptly gave notice that Mr. Lindsay's refusal to support Bryan in 1896 and the silver State ticket last fall was sufficient ground for refusal of his tender of services to the party this year."

No wonder Minister Hunter, of Guatemala, is anxious to come home next month on a leave of absence. Next month the country is on the eve of another revolution, that is liable to be precipitated during the presidential election August 1. Large quantities of arms and ammunition are being landed daily at Guatemalan ports and much bad feeling is showing itself.

The big guns of the American fleet have secured the proper range and can now throw shells weighing 250 pounds over a mile inland. Into a town 4 1/2 miles inland.

You don't think this is sure enough shooting, just take the time to figure out what this statement really means. But it can be done, because it was done last Monday.

Gen. Toral will soon be engaged in Passed-Toral pursuits.

DON'T'S.

A Few Useful Hints for Travelers to Mexico.

Don't attend bull fights on Sunday and then find fault with the morals of the native populace.

Don't buy a rubber plantation of a man on the street. He also has gold bricks that come cheaper.

Don't sit in Mexican draughts. Don't cash American drafts. Rio de Janeiro is dangerous south of the Rio Grande.

Don't try to see as much the first day, or exert yourself at an altitude of a mile and a half, as you would at home near the sea level.

Don't expect your meals to be put on the table all at once or twice or three times. Each thing you order will be served as a separate course.

Don't forget to shake hands with your Mexican friend both at meeting and parting, no matter how often you meet or how brief the interview may be.

Don't try to convince the Mexicans that they don't know how to make coffee. They have been burning it for several centuries, and the present generation prefers it black.

Don't forget that Mexico City is only 5,000 feet above the sea level, and that every month in the year you will need warm clothing to be comfortable both mornings and evenings.

Don't flunk the newsboys are crazy when they offer you "to-morrow morning's paper" at four o'clock in the afternoon. It isn't their fault.

Don't be surprised if your acquaintance who has been in Mexico long enough to have become acclimated has adopted many of the little mannerisms of the country. He can't help it; the very atmosphere is permeated with politeness and respectability.

Don't try to convince an Indian street peddler that if a dozen bananas sell for 12 cents two dozen ought to amount to 24 cents. You can't do it. He knows that one real is 12 cents but two reals are 25 cents, and eight make a dollar.

Don't expect an appointment to be kept on the minute or the hour. If your Mexican friend should rush past a half-dozen friends on the street without stopping to shake hands and pass the compliments of the day, they would think he had lost his mind and his manners; so you must wait.

Don't imagine you will have to live on "Mexican" cooking, which, according to the popular idea, means everything so hot with chili that it is cooked without a fire. The hotel and restaurant bills of fare rarely contain more than one or two dishes that are highly seasoned, and they are easily distinguishable by their names. As a rule the American traveler will find no greater difference in the cooking in Mexico as compared with that served in the United States than he would in almost any other foreign country.—Modern Mexico.

USEFUL DISCOVERIES.

Important Part Electricity Has Played in This Line.

One of the most fortunate discoveries in the realm of electrochemistry, whose results are peculiarly adapted to rouse interest in wide circles, is Henry Moissan, of Paris. With the force of the current he conquered fluorine, which most stubbornly all the elements has resisted isolation, and presented it, free of all combinations, to the eye of the investigator—the first time it ever was seen in a free state. In his electric oven he crystallized coal to diamonds, and gold, copper, and resisting graphite were neglected and melted down into the form of little scales. These and similar experiments give an important idea of the almost creative power that the strong current lends humanity over material.

Besides new knowledge, electrochemistry has ripened the prominent practical results and has placed others nearer attainment. The extraction of the far-famed aluminum from clay takes place almost immediately under the influence of the powerful current. In like manner soda is formed from kitchen salt almost without expense if you take into account the value of the important second product. Electricity has been used successfully also to purify streams and rivers and to free them effectively from the death germs most inimical to humanity, such as cholera, typhus, malaria, etc.—Franz Bendt, in Chautauque.

CARRIERS MUST PAY.

Their Failure to Affix Stamp Subjects Them to Penalties Provided by Law.

Washington, July 13.—In answer to references from the Commissioner of International Revenue all bearing upon the questions as to whether the shipper or carrier shall pay for and affix the required revenue stamp to bills of lading, etc., Assistant Attorney General Boyd has held as follows:

"The law makes it the duty of every railroad and steamboat company, carrier, express company or corporation, or person whose occupation it is to act as such, to issue to the shipper, consignee or his agents, or person from whom any goods are accepted for transportation a bill of lading, manifest or some other evidence of the receipt of goods, wares or merchandise received for carriage and transportation, and this bill of lading, manifest or memorandum requires a revenue stamp of the value of one cent affixed to it and canceled. In case of failure to issue such bill of lading the law imposes a penalty of $50 upon the carrier guilty of such failure.

The penalty for failure to so affix the stamp is not more than $100. The purpose of the law is clear. It was to tax the carrier and not the shipper, and these provisions undoubtedly fix upon the express companies and other carriers the duty of providing, affixing and canceling the stamp, and their failure to do so provide, affix and cancel such stamps subjects them to the penalties provided by law. It is suggested that some of these carriers are refusing to receive goods for shipment until the shipper pays the tax. While it is not my province to advise as to the recourse which the shipper may have in instances of this kind, yet I am sure that the laws are ample to require public carriers and express companies to receive goods tendered for shipment or suffer damages for such refusal."

Bloodless Fight at Chickamauga.

Maj. Jas. C. Bryant and Capt. Geo. T. Price, of the Second Kentucky regiment at Chickamauga, had a fight Wednesday. Maj. Bryant accused Capt. Price, who is team master, of feeding the battalion provender to private horses and Price called him a liar. Bryant did not resent it, but went off and said some hard things about Price, which caused the latter to look him up and denounce him and the quarrel reached such a heated stage that Price struck Bryant with his fist. Bryant was sent to his quarters by Col. Castleman.

WHITSITT RESIGNS.

President of the Baptist Seminary Does the Proper Thing.

Gives up the Place He Holds, in June, 1899, in the Interest of Harmony in the Church.

Louisville, Ky., July 14.—(Special).—Dr. William H. Whitsitt has resigned the presidency of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in the hope of ending a controversy between his friends and his opponents, growing out of certain publications in which he expressed views on a point of church history in which many members of his church did not agree with him. The resignation was conveyed in the following telegram, sent yesterday:

July 13, 1898.—To Hon. Joshua Levering, President Board of Trustees, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Baltimore, Md.: I hereby resign my office as President of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary and Professor of Church History, to take effect at the close of the session of 1898-9.

WM. H. WHITSITT.

Dr. Whitsitt's resignation can not be acted on until the next regular meeting of the trustees, which will be in May, 1899, when the Southern Baptist Convention meets in Louisville.

Dr. Whitsitt's decision to resign was a surprise to most of his friends, but the step was not until he had consulted with many of his supporters in whom he had most confidence. He was prompted to this course by an unwillingness to continue a bone of contention in his denomination.

The agitation against Dr. Whitsitt has now been going on for more than two years. It began soon after the appearance of a small monogram written by him on the subject of the practice of immersion by early English Baptists. He took the position that for a certain brief period immersion was not practiced by the early English Baptists. An article which he contributed to Johnson's Cyclopaedia, also gave material to his critics. A brisk controversy as to the accuracy of his views soon took on more or less of a partisan and personal character. Much bad feeling seemed to be engendered, and each side added fuel to the flames by accusing the other side of resorting to unfair tactics, including even falsehood and forgery.

The matter was twice brought before the trustees of the Seminary and before the Southern Baptist Convention. On both occasions the friends of Dr. Whitsitt triumphed. The last meeting of the convention was in May of this year, at Norfolk, Va., and was hoped that the matter would then be allowed to rest. In a very short time it became manifest that Dr. Whitsitt's opponents had no idea of giving up the fight, but were, on the contrary, preparing for a still more vigorous agitation against him. Their plan of campaign seemed to include the adoption of resolutions by Baptist associations everywhere, and even by individual Baptist churches, demanding Dr. Whitsitt's resignation of the presidency and urging that all support of the Seminary be withheld as long as Dr. Whitsitt's connection with it should continue. The Kentucky association, which met recently at Hopkinsville, led off with such resolutions.

Although the controversy had not up to this time injured the seminary, the number of the students being larger during the session just closed than in any previous year of the seminary's history, some of the friends of the institution, including several members of the faculty, who have heretofore stood by Dr. Whitsitt, began to take alarm. They did not to share the responsibility for continuing a fight that seems endless; that had already created so many alienations in the denomination and was likely to create more. They also feared the effect of such determined hostility to the seminary. They therefore advised him to resign, and after consultation with his friends he decided to do so.

Dr. Whitsitt has been connected with the seminary for several years, removing to Louisville when it was brought here from Greenville, S. C. He has occupied the chair of Church History, and ranks among the most eminent authorities on that subject. He succeeded the late Dr. John A. Broadus in the presidency of the institution.

Operation to be performed.

Mrs. James A. Smithson, of Pee Dee, was taken to Clarksville yesterday afternoon, where an operation will be performed by a specialist of that place. Mrs. Smithson has been sick for about a year and had grown so weak that she had to be carried on a cot, arranged on the train. Mr. Smithson and his sister, Mrs. W. E. Adcock, of Church Hill, accompanied her.

Only About Forty Per Cent.

Not more than forty per cent. of the wheat crop has been threshed and much of it will not be dry enough for the machine before Saturday. In many fields the heavy rains have had the effect of submerging the grain in mud. Where the wheat is in this condition it will take a week or so to dry it out for threshing.

On His Crutches.

Mr. Jack Torian, the young Gracy farmer, who was thrown from his buggy near the city about a month ago, and sustained a bad fracture of one leg, is able to be out and is walking around with the aid of his crutches. The dressings have been removed and the injured limb is straight and in perfect shape.

More Rain Last Night.

The delightful cool weather of the first of the week was good as long as it lasted but it did not last long. Yesterday and last night brought another change and another rainy spell that again stopped the wheat threshing.

Home-Grown Figs.

Mr. C. W. Ware, a prominent Trenton farmer, spent the day in the city.

GILBERT WINS.

The Shelby Man Nominated Over McCreary et al.

A Strong and Able Man and an Original Free Coinage Advocate.

Danville, July 14.—(Special).—Hon. G. G. Gilbert, of Shelbyville, is the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Eighth district. His nomination was made on the forty-first ballot.

Jessamine county voted the break by casting seven votes for Gilbert and seven for McCreary. Mercer county then fell in line with seventeen votes for Gilbert, which secured his nomination. The final ballot resulted: Gilbert, 84; McCreary, 71.

Senator Farris, on behalf of Gov. McCreary, moved to make the nomination unanimous, and it carried.

The Platform Adopted.

Be it resolved, That we approve the call for this convention.

Second—That we reaffirm our faith in the cardinal principles of Democracy as enunciated in the various platforms of the Democratic party, both State and national, and especially of the platform adopted at Chicago in 1896, and our confidence in the peerless leadership of its nominee, W. J. Bryan.

Third—That we approve as righteous and just our present war, waged in the cause of humanity, and pledge to its prosecution our earnest sympathy and support.

Fourth—That our army and navy, now illustrating the strength, courage and patriotism born of our free institutions, is cause for national congratulation and patriotic pride in the heart of every American citizen.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.
